

COMPANY MILESTONES

- | | |
|---|--|
| 2011 Emervel (dermal filler range) launch in Europe and Latin America.
In March, Galderma completes the acquisition of Q-Med, a Swedish company specialized in aesthetics. 2010 Differin Lotion 0.1% (acne) launch in the United States.
Galderma hits the 1 billion mark in sales. 2009 Launch of Vectical (psoriasis).
Launch of Azzalure (glabellar lines). 2008 Launch of Epiduo (acne).
Acquisition of CollaGenex Pharmaceuticals and its product Oracea (rosacea).
Launch of Differin 0.1% Gel in Japan. 2007 License agreements for Pliaglis (topical anesthetic) and a botulinum toxin Type A.
Launch of Differin 0.3%. 2006 Clobex Spray launch in the US.
Opening of the new Galderma R&D center in Sophia Antipolis, France. 2005 Metrogel 1% launch in the US.
Galderma becomes number one* in the D class (Dermatology)
*source: IMS Health, IMS dataview – D class – MAT Q3 2005 – 33 countries). 2004 Inauguration of the new research and preclinical development building in Sophia Antipolis, France.
Opening of a new production site in Hortolandia, Brazil.
Clobex Shampoo launch in the United-States and acquisition of Tri-Luma. 2003 Launch of Metvix in Germany and the UK and Clobex Lotion (psoriasis) in the US. 2002 Foundation stone laid for the new Research & Development Center in Sophia Antipolis, France.
Licensing agreements of Tri-Luma (pigmentary disorders) and Pekiron (Loceryl Cream) in Japan.
First FDA approvals for pharmaceutical production in Montreal. 2001 Licensing agreement for Metvix (skin cancer).
Launch of Clindagel (acne). 2000 The Montreal production unit comes on stream.
Launch of Silkis (psoriasis) and acquisition of Capex Shampoo (seborrheic dermatitis). | 1999 Acquisition of Loceryl (fungal nail infections), developed by Laboratoires Roche, together with the Scandinavian dermatology portfolio developed by Nycomed. 1998 Inauguration of a new R&D facility in Princeton, New Jersey, USA.
Acquisition in Brazil of Darrow's dermatology portfolio. 1997 Acquisition of Basotherm, a subsidiary of Boehringer Germany. 1996 Acquisition of a plant belonging to Wyeth-Ayerts in Montreal, Canada, to develop a state-of-the-art manufacturing plant. 1995 Launch of acne treatment Differin, Galderma's first home-grown dermatology product. 1994 Galderma inaugurates its wholly-owned production plant in Alby-sur-Chéran, near Annecy in the French Alps. 1993 Acquisition of MetroGel/Rozex to include rosacea treatments in the product portfolio. 1989 Global organization implemented and new affiliates opened in Canada, Germany, Spain and the United Kingdom. 1988 Galderma progressively takes over Alcon's dermatology business, allowing it to focus exclusively on ophthalmology. 1986 Galderma's first operations open for business in France, followed by a second in Italy. The International Dermatology Research Center focuses its efforts on prescription dermatology products. 1981 Nestlé and L'Oréal form a joint venture to become the world's leading dermatology player. Galderma is born. 1979 L'Oréal creates its International Dermatology Research Center (CIRD) in Sophia Antipolis, France, specializing in fundamental research into skin physiology. 1977 Nestlé acquires Alcon to strengthen its presence in the North American market. 1972 Acquisition of Owen by ophthalmology specialist Alcon, headquartered in Fort Worth, Texas. 1961 Creation of the Owen dermatology company in Dallas, Texas, USA. |
|---|--|