

Galderma Laboratories, L.P. Statement of Compliance

California Transparency in Supply Chains Act of 2010

Galderma Laboratories, L.P. recognizes its ethical, social and environmental responsibilities to the communities in which it does business, and aims to conduct its business in a manner that exemplifies the highest ethical standards. In this regard, Galderma Laboratories, L.P. complies with the California Transparency in Supply Chains Act of 2010. The Act requires large retailers and manufacturers doing business in California and having gross worldwide sales over $100 million to provide information to the public regarding efforts taken to eliminate slavery and human trafficking in their supply chains.

Galderma Laboratories, L.P. requires all suppliers to declare compliance with social obligations and laws against concealed and forced labor. Galderma Laboratories, L.P. further requires suppliers to produce documents proving compliance with such obligations and laws. Suppliers must also certify that none of the products in the Galderma Laboratories, L.P. supply chain have been manufactured, assembled or packed using forced, prison, dangerous, concealed and/or child labor.